FOOT-BALL BANQUET.

Newell Elected Captain.

Last Saturday night the foot-ball squad was tendered a banquet, at Smith Hall, by the ladies of Auburn and the Athletic Association. The hall and tables were very tastefully decorated in the college colors, and in the center of the room there was erected a goal post with all of the balls won during the season hanging from the cross-bar, decorated with the colors and pennants of their respective college. Mr. Wm. Williams, a wearer of the "A" and a star of previous years, acted as toast master. Dr. B. B. Ross spoke on "The Georgia Trip." He spoke of the determination with which the members of the team fought during the memorable battle with Georgia and said that they deserve much credit for their work. Coach Donahue gave a review of "The Season of 1912" and highly praised the team on its record. Coach Pray spoke on "The Scrubs" and complimented them very highly for their valuable work against the Varsity. He also told that the word "Scrubs" really meant, and what they meant to a college Varsity. Prof. G. N. Mitcham in speaking of "Foot-Ball Then And Now" gave several little humorous incidents during his foot-ball career, and also gave some intensely interesting news concerning some of Auburn's old battles. Mr. Augustus Graydon delivered a very good paper on "Auburn Spirit", telling what "Auburn Spirit" meant, and how it affected the teams. Captain J. P. Major spoke on "The Team", thanking the men for their wonderful work during the season, and in conclusion presenting to Coach Donahue a beautiful loving cup in behalf of the team of 1912. Captain-Elect, J. K. Newell next responded to a toast "The Team of 1913." He thanked the men for the honor they had conferred upon him by electing him Captain of next year's team, and spoke of the bright prospects for the coming season. Prof. P. C. Southall spoke of "The Vanderbilt Game", and in the course of his speech he paid Coach Donahue a very high tribute and complimented every member of the team very highly on their record. Mr. J. M. Davis gave "The Rah Rah Boys In Town." Prof. Thomas Bragg delivered a splendid address, his subject being "Auburn." In concluding his speech Prof. Bragg presented a gold medal to "Sheep" Lamb as token from the team, expressing their appreciation for his loyal services for the past four years. Dr. Drake then spoke a few words commending the work of the team for the past season, and complimented them very highly for their game against Vanderbilt. After the presentation of a great bunch of chrysanthemums, by the ever loyal "Pats," to the team, the foot-ball squad of 1912 was disbanded after spending a most delightful evening. The Cadet Orchestra furnished music for the occasion and it was enjoyed by all. Captain Major and his squad wish to thank all those who made the evening so enjoyable, and to especially thank the ladies of Auburn.

AUBURN DEFEATED FOR THE

FOR THE FIRST TIME IN FIVE YEARS THE UNIVERSITY OF GEORGIA DEFEATS THE AUBURN TIGERS

FIRST TIME THIS SEASON

Athens, Ga., --- Thanksgiving Day---Today, at Sanford Field, the Red and Black team of the University of Georgia defeated the Orange and Blue Tigers of Auburn for the first time in five years. The game, though played on a very muddy field, was nevertheless hard-fought, very fast at all times, exciting throughout, and filled with sensational plays by both teams. The people of Athens, and Georgia supporters realizing the importance of this great battle, assembled five thousand strong to cheer the best team that has ever represented the Georgia University.

At three o'clock as Captain Peacock led his squad to the field the Georgia rooters went wild and the Red and Black band struck up "Glory to Old Georgia". A few minutes later Captain Major led his Orange and Blue warriors to the field and began signal work. There was a great hush in the stands as the two teams assumed their positions on the field for one of the most important battles of the season, to Auburn it meant a tie for first place, and to Georgia a tie for second place, in the ranking of Southern teams.

Stars of The Game

Notwithstanding the fact that the hardest game ever played by a Southern team, namely the battle with Vandy, was only four days since, the Auburn team played with the same fight, grim determination, and pluck that is characteristic of all of Coach Donahue's teams, and put up a wonderful battle. Captain Major was again very conspicuous throughout the game on account of his great toe work. Owing to the muddy condition of the field he deserves much credit, both for his punts and also in being able to successfully kick two goals from placement out of three trials. Major has starred in this line in every game of the season, and has won the name of being one of the best and most consistent punters in Dixie. Newell's work was also a feature, but owing to the muddy condition of the field he was unable to make any great get-aways. Time and again he passed the ends, only to be downed by a lone Georgia back or have his feet slip from under him in the slush. Arnold and Ressimiac played good games at their respective positions in the back field, on both offense and defense. Robinson and Kearley showed up well at ends, while Meadows and Lamb played great games at their tackles. Burns was excellent at center and on the defense.

For Georgia the work of their wonderful half back McWhorter was easily the feature. He played the best game of his foot ball career and his team-mates showed their appreciation by electing him to lead the Red and Black warriors for the season of 1913. Bowden at half played a beautiful game, as did Arnett at tackle and Captain Peacock at guard.

Game In Detail.

FIRST QUARTER:—Auburn won the toss and Captain Major chose to receive the ball—Powell kicked off for Georgia—Major received and returned 15 yards—Captain Major after making several attempts at the Georgia line was compelled to punt. The ball went out of bounds on Georgia's 35 yd. line. Georgia found the Auburn line holding tight. Bowden fumbled and Auburn recovered. Again Auburn is unable to gain required distance and Capt. Major punts behind Georgia's goal. Ball put in scrimmage by Georgia on her own 20 yd. line. Three line bucks by Powell and Bowden give Georgia first down. But again three times attempting to go through the Auburn line Powell is compelled to punt. Ball going out of bounds on Georgia's 35 yd. line. After two good gains by Major and Ressimiac, Captain Major attempts a place kick, but failed. Touchback—Georgia puts ball in play on her 20 yd. line—McWhorter goes 10 yds. around end. Powell takes 6 yds. in line. Georgia fumbles but recovers; unable to annex the required distance Powell punts. Auburn unable to gain. Captain Major punts. Christopher replaces Ressimiac at full. McWhorter goes 5 yds. Bowden takes 3 yds. in line—Powell adds 4 yds.—McWhorter goes 4 yards around end—Bowden takes 5 yds.—McWhorter goes 1 yd.—Powell goes into line for 3 yds. McWhorter goes around end for 8 yds.—Paddock takes 4 through center—McWhorter hits tackle for 4 yds.—Powell unable to gain in line—McWhorter goes for 6 yds.—Bowden goes 3 yds.—McWhorter for a 5 yd. loss—quarter closes. Score Auburn 0; Georgia 0.

SECOND QUARTER:—Period opens with Georgia in possession of the ball on Auburn's 25 yd. line—McWhorter goes 15 yds. but Georgia found holding in line—ball brought back and Georgia penalized 15 yds.—McWhorter again goes 10 yds. around end—Georgia attempts a forward pass but fails—ball goes over to Auburn—Christopher in attempting a line plunge fumbles and McWhorter recovers. McWhorter goes 4 yds. but on next play loses 4 yds.—Bowden takes 2 yds. in line—McWhorter then makes a beautiful 25 yd. run for the first touchdown of the game—After a punt out, Henderson fails to kick goal—Georgia kicks to Auburn. Major receives and returns the oval 30 yds.—But Captain Major finding it impossible to gain the required distance, punts. Paddock returning the ball 15 yds. But Georgia after attempting Auburn's line three times is forced to boot. Major duplicates. Paddock receiving a fair catch on Georgia's 20 yd. line. McWhorter goes 9 yds. Bowden takes 3 yds. Georgia again penalized 15 yds. for holding. McWhorter goes 15 yds. around end—Powell takes 3 yds. in center—McWhorter 4 yds. at tackle. Bowden goes 18 yds. McWhorter gains 1 yd.

in line—Georgia works a forward pass for 12 yds.—McWhorter goes 4 yds. But Georgia again found holding and penalized 15 yds. Georgia fails in a forward pass over left end. But on next play they shot one over right end. Conklin receiving and going for touchdown. After a punt out Henderson again failed to kick an easy goal. First half closes—Score: Georgia 12; Auburn 0.

THIRD QUARTER:—Auburn came back hard in the second half; they fought as no Auburn team ever fought before—Powell kicked to Newell who returned 10 yds. But Auburn unable to gain. Major punts. Georgia also unable to gain after several attempts at the line and Powell punts to Major, who duplicates after two trials at the line. Paddock fumbles and Auburn recovers on Georgia's 30 yd. line. A good gain by Newell and another by Arnold found the ball on the 11 yd. line. From there Captain Major kicked a beautiful field goal. The remainder of the third quarter was an exchange of punts and attempts at the line on the part of both teams. The quarter closed with the ball in Georgia's possession on her own 20 yd. line. With the Score Georgia 12; Auburn 3.

FOURTH QUARTER:—McWhorter goes 5 yds. in line. Bowden goes 4 yds. Auburn braced and Georgia is compelled to punt. Georgia again penalized 15 yds. holding. Ressimiac goes into line for 4 yds.—but unable to gain in next play. Major punts to the 50 yd. line—Georgia finding it impossible to gain—Powell punts and Newell returns the ball 30 yds. Ressimiac goes 5 yds. in line—Major again punts. Georgia again found holding, penalized 15 yds. Georgia punts. Auburn back then got under way and rushed the ball down the field and Captain Major again kicks goal from placement.

With only three more minutes to play Auburn recovered a fumble by McWhorter and was rushing the ball dangerously near Georgia's goal when the game closed—Score:—Georgia 12; Auburn 6.

INTER-SOCIETY DEBATE

It has been customary for a number of years for the Wirt and Websterian Literary Societies to meet in Langdon Hall once every year for their annual inter-society debate. This event took place on last Saturday evening for this year, and as is also customary, was a great success.

The question for debate was Resolved: That all laws and officers of the United States should be subject to referendum and recall. The speakers for the Websterian and affirmative side of the question were: Campbell and G. W. Holley; for the Wirt and negative were L. H. Lewis and W. H. Hudson. The decision was given in favor of the Wirt. The Judges were Dr. Hinds, Prof. Wannamaker and Prof. Rutland. Dr. Hinds rendering their decision. The speeches of all four debaters were characterized by brilliant oratory, logical reasoning and convincing arguments. The band furnished very enjoyable music for the occasion.

Mr. W. A. McMurray, President of the Websterian, acted as chairman. Mr. Campbell of the Websterian opened the debate with a very strong and well delivered speech. He showed how recall and referendum if put into use would be a very great step towards clean politics and democracy and raised many other strong arguments in its favor. He then pointed to its success in Switzerland also in Oregon and at the close of his speech it looked rather bad for the Wirt.

He was followed by Mr. L. H. Lewis of the Wirt who showed great ability as an impromptu speaker by defeating a great many of Mr. Campbell's seemingly impregnable arguments. He then put forth some equally strong arguments to show that our present system was very much better than the proposed plan of recall and referendum.

The next speaker was Mr. G. W. Holley for the affirmative who employed all the art of an accomplished orator in delivering his very forceful speech and when he took his seat the tide seemed turned strongly in favor of the Websterian.

The next and last speaker was Mr. W. H. Hudson for the Wirt. At the beginning of his speech he defeated several of the arguments put forth by his opponents in the earlier stages of the contest. He then showed how conditions in Switzerland which do not exist in the United States had been instrumental in the success of referendum and recall in that country and gave many reasons why it would not be successful in this country. Next he took up the situation in Oregon where referendum and recall are being tried and showed that conditions there under referendum and recall were almost identical with those here in Alabama and thus no benefit had been derived from it. The fickleness of the people in regard to officials and lack of information of a majority of the population in regard to many important political questions was pointed out, discussed and illustrated. He then summed up his and Mr. Lewis' arguments and closed the debate in a very able manner amid enthusiastic applause.

The performance from start to finish was a great success and reflects great credit on our literary societies and the work being done in them. This Literary Society work is without doubt one of the most potent factors for mental development at Auburn and should be encouraged in every possible way.

AUBURN, ALA., DECEMBER 7, 1912

One often hears it remarked with admiration that a certain man or team "is a good loser." And justly so too, because it is one of the essentials of a true sportsman that he be a good loser. But the supreme test of a sportsman and a gentleman is: "is he a good winner?" Can he win and be magnanimous about it? Can he resist the temptation to boast of his conquest? Can he carry this farther and so treat his opponent that the vanquished almost forgets that he has been defeated and they seem to be celebrating a double victory? This is the supreme test that Georgia was subjected to on Thanksgiving Day, and they proved themselves to be one hundred per cent. thoroughbreds.

During the game they fought our team like demons, but after the game they received them like brothers and entertained them like princes. All of which goes to show that two great institutions may be athletic rivals in a most friendly and cordial way. It shows that the annual foot-ball game between Auburn and the University of Georgia has fostered a strong friendship between the two institutions. We believe that this friendly rivalry and feeling of cordiality will continue far into the future. And we hope that next Thanksgiving when the Georgians come to Auburn that we can conduct ourselves as well towards them as they did towards our representatives this year.

About the Georgia game when we first heard the results we couldn't believe our ears. Then finally when we became convinced that Auburn had been beaten by a Southern team we began to wonder how it happened. We just knew that it had been by some fluke or some phenomenal stroke of luck; and we hatched up a thousand excuses for our team. But when we read the details of the game we found that the Georgia boys beat us by straight foot-ball and that the only thing for Auburn to do is to grin and bear it.

But the game can be a lesson to us too. We are again impressed with the fact that "one can't sometimes always tell." And next year we won't feel so sure of the S. I. A. A. Championship until after the Thanksgiving game. But this reminds us that we have to reckon then with the Georgians again, and on our own campus too. So let us all look forward to that time to retrieve our fortunes.

Auburn and Georgia have played 18 foot-ball games against one another. We have won 8, Georgia has won 7, and 3 were tie games. If they win next year they will have won as many as we.

PROF. P. F. WILLIAMS DIED WEDNESDAY

It was with deepest regret that the faculty and students learned of the sad death of Prof. P. F. Williams, which occurred at Asheville, N. C., early Wednesday morning. At the advice of a specialist, Prof. Williams went to Asheville about four weeks ago, and every one thought he would soon return much improved, but his condition was worse than had been anticipated and soon became so critical that Mrs. Williams was summoned to his bedside the first of the week.

Prof. Williams was about 30 years old and was born and reared in Natick, Mass. He graduated from the Massachusetts Agricultural College in 1905. After graduation he was connected for some time with W. H. Manning, one of the great landscape gardeners of the country. He came to Auburn on Jan. 1st, 1907 as assistant in Horticulture under Prof. R. S. Mackintosh. In July 1909, he was appointed Acting Professor of Horticulture, Prof. Mackintosh being away on leave, and about a year later was elected Professor of Horticulture and Forestry. Prof. Williams has always taken an active interest in the horticultural affairs of the state and in January 1910, was made secretary of the State Horticultural Society and has held that position since, being re-elected every year. He was a member of the Masonic Lodge of Auburn and of the Kappa Sigma fraternity.

Prof Williams' death is a sad loss to the college and the community. He is survived by his wife and two children, in Auburn, and has other relatives in Massachusetts. The hearts of the students and the people of Auburn go out in sympathy to them in their grief.

At the time of writing it is not known where the funeral of Prof. Williams will be held, but it is thought that he will be buried in his native city.

AN AUBURN MAN AT WEST POINT.

W. W. Wynne, a former star of the Orange and Blue team, and an all-Southern representative of Auburn, is this year playing at tackle on the Army eleven. He played a brilliant game in the annual battle with Syracuse and has shown up well the entire season.

AUBURN, ALA., DECEMBER 7, 1912

One often hears it remarked with admiration that a certain man or team "is a good loser." And justly so too, because it is one of the essentials of a true sportsman that he be a good loser. But the supreme test of a sportsman and a gentleman is: "is he a good winner?" Can he win and be magnanimous about it? Can he resist the temptation to boast of his conquest? Can he carry this farther and so treat his opponent that the vanquished almost forgets that he has been defeated and they seem to be celebrating a double victory? This is the supreme test that Georgia was subjected to on Thanksgiving Day, and they proved themselves to be one hundred per cent. thoroughbreds.

During the game they fought our team like demons, but after the game they received them like brothers and entertained them like princes. All of which goes to show that two great institutions may be athletic rivals in a most friendly and cordial way. It shows that the annual foot-ball game between Auburn and the University of Georgia has fostered a strong friendship between the two institutions. We believe that this friendly rivalry and feeling of cordiality will continue far into the future. And we hope that next Thanksgiving when the Georgians come to Auburn that we can conduct ourselves as well towards them as they did towards our representatives this year.

About the Georgia game when we first heard the results we couldn't believe our ears. Then finally when we became convinced that Auburn had been beaten by a Southern team we began to wonder how it happened. We just knew that it had been by some fluke or some phenomenal stroke of luck; and we hatched up a thousand excuses for our team. But when we read the details of the game we found that the Georgia boys beat us by straight foot-ball and that the only thing for Auburn to do is to grin and bear it.

But the game can be a lesson to us too. We are again impressed with the fact that "one can't sometimes always tell." And next year we won't feel so sure of the S. I. A. A. Championship until after the Thanksgiving game. But this reminds us that we have to reckon then with the Georgians again, and on our own campus too. So let us all look forward to that time to retrieve our fortunes.

Auburn and Georgia have played 18 foot-ball games against one another. We have won 8, Georgia has won 7, and 3 were tie games. If they win next year they will have won as many as we.

It was with deepest regret that the faculty and students learned of the sad death of Prof. P. F. Williams, which occurred at Asheville, N. C., early Wednesday morning. At the advice of a specialist, Prof. Williams went to Asheville about four weeks ago, and every one thought he would soon return much improved, but his condition was worse than had been anticipated and soon became so critical that Mrs. Williams was summoned to his bedside the first of the week.

Prof. Williams was about 30 years old and was born and reared in Natick, Mass. He graduated from the Massachusetts Agricultural College in 1905. After graduation he was connected for some time with W. H. Manning, one of the great landscape gardeners of the country. He came to Auburn on Jan. 1st, 1907 as assistant in Horticulture under Prof. R. S. Mackintosh. In July 1909, he was appointed Acting Professor of Horticulture, Prof. Mackintosh being away on leave, and about a year later was elected Professor of Horticulture and Forestry. Prof. Williams has always taken an active interest in the horticultural affairs of the State and in January, 1910, was made secretary of the State Horticultural Society and has held that position since, being re-elected every year. He was a member of the Masonic Lodge of Auburn and of the Kappa Sigma fraternity.

Prof. Williams' death is a sad loss to the college and the community. He is survived by his wife and two children, in Auburn, and has other relatives in Massachusetts. The hearts of the students and the people of Auburn go out in sympathy to them in their grief.

At the time of writing it is not known where the funeral of Prof. Williams will be held, but it is thought that he will be buried in his native city.

CONVERSATION CLUB CELEBRATES TWENTY- FIFTH ANNIVERSARY

The twenty-fifth anniversary of the organization of the Conversation Club, Auburn's Literary and Social Club, was celebrated on Monday evening by a most interesting meeting in the Reading Room of the Library. Reminiscences of the past was the real subject of the evening as outlined in the program. One of the most interesting papers of the evening was given by Mrs. B. B. Ross, who in a most interesting manner gave extracts from letters written to friends in Auburn by former members of the club. Among these were extracts from letters sent by Dr. Walter Riggs of Clemson University; Dr. W. O. Scroggs of University of Louisiana; Dr. L. W. Paine of University of Texas; Hon T. D. Sanford of Opelika; Miss Toccoa Cozart of Montgomery, and Mrs. I. H. Mell of Atlanta both of whom were charter members.

Mrs. J. S. Newman, of Clemson, S. C., who was one of the charter members and who helped to organize the club came down from her home to attend the anniversary. In an attendance of eighty members, which was the largest in the history of the club there were but four of the charter members present.

The program was as follows: Address of Welcome, Dr. B. B. Ross; song by the club quartette, composed of Miss Allie Glenn, Mrs. B. H. Crenshaw, Prof. J. J. Wilmore and Doctors, J. H. Drake and J. T. Anderson; "A Quarter of a Century", Dr. George Petrie; Our Absent Members, Mrs. B. B. Ross; Song by the club quartette; poem, Mr. R. W. Burton; Past, Present and Future; Extremorous Speeches by Dr. Thach, Prof. Southall and Dr. Anderson; Song, "Auld Lang Syne", by the club.

Thursday, Nov. 28, we met, on the campus of the University, a repulse which took from us and gave to Vanderbilt the championship of the S. I. A. A. The statement, made by many, that our boys were over-confident is utterly false. They went expecting a hard fought game and did their best, conducting themselves like men throughout. Georgia beat us by playing better ball. While "laying" for a man or some men is not what I call exactly sportsman-like, still it is one class of foot ball. Next Thanksgiving we play Georgia upon the A. P. I. campus and then the Southern states and the whole United States will know how Auburn and Georgia rank. "We bide our time."

Not Blaming The Tobacco.

"Were you sick the first time you ever smoked?"

"I should say I was!"

"I shouldn't think you'd ever have cared for tobacco again if it affected you that way."

"It wasn't the tobacco that affected me. Father was to blame for that."

The Strongest Argument

He—"What, in your opinion, is the strongest argument in favor of woman suffrage?"

Clever Suffragist—"The mental caliber of the women who oppose it."

Prof. Courtland Curtis, who formerly held the chair in Architecture at Auburn and who now holds this chair at Tulane University spent the week end with friends here.

Mrs. B. B. Ross gave a most charming luncheon on Wednesday afternoon in honor of Mrs. J. S. Newman of Clemson, S. C.; Miss Aldine Gleason of New York and Mrs. C. A. Martin of Gardner, Mass. All of whom are visiting friends and relatives in Auburn. Mrs. Ross displayed most exquisite taste in the decorations of her home and choice of the menu.

One of the most important books of recent publication is one on "The Fourteenth Amendment and The States" written by C. W. Collins who graduated in Auburn in 1899, and later from the University of Chicago. This book is now the best and latest authority on the Fourteenth Amendment. It represents the work of about five or six years by Mr. Collins and discusses every phase of the questions involved. Besides this work on the Amendment the book includes a number of different articles which Mr. Collins has written for prominent magazines and journals.

The members of the D. A. R. held a most interesting meeting at the home of Mrs. O. M. Steadham on Tuesday evening. The two papers presented were most inspiring and showed much careful study. Mrs. C. L. Hare in her paper on Early Days in Virginia, made use of some very quaint anecdotes. While Mrs. George Duncan, in her paper on Williamsburg as the Colonial Capital confined herself, to a large extent to the happenings of the early Colonial period. Mrs. Steadham is a most charming hostess and served most delicious refreshments. Her home was most tastefully decorated for the occasion. Among the guests at the meeting of the chapter were Mrs. J. S. Newman of Clemson, Miss Adline Gleason of New York and Mrs. Noll of Montgomery. The latter is visiting her grandmother, Mrs. B. M. Thomas, who has the distinctive honor of being what is known as a real daughter inasmuch as her father was a Revolutionary Soldier.
